9. [ ] (C) LIAISON In response to his request the other day, I called Chairman George H. Mahon (D., Texas) to tell him that we had checked our files and had pulled together the material he had requested on the number and dates on which we had briefed the Special Group on a sensitive covert action program. I told him that there had been five briefings from 1972 through 1974 and five Reserve release letters during the corresponding time-frame. I added that [ ]

[ ] who was Chief of the division concerned at the time, was prepared to come up with me to brief the Chairman on the substance of our past reports to the Special Group. Chairman Mahon said it would not be necessary to either provide the information or the report at this time, so long as we had the information available subject to his call. to meet with me until after he returns from a trip he will be taking. He said, however, there was no rush on the matter and that he would consider the call an interim reply. He asked me to pass on to Mr. Cary that he needed one copy of the transcript of each briefing on foreign intelligence operations of the Oversight Subcommittee during 1975 by the Director. 5. [ ] LIAISON I called Mike Hornblow, NSC staff, to inform him that the House Subcommittee on International Political and Military Affairs, Committee on International Relations has now asked for the same documents on Mayaguez that GAO had asked for and gave him the flavor of Mike Finley's, on the staff of the Subcommittee, requests. We discussed each of the items and he said he would explore just where everybody stood on release of the Situation Reports, Post Mortem, and Logs and get back to us. He suggested perhaps we should push for a briefing first with any documents to be requested if the briefing is not enough.
